

Jar, Lidless

This park is boring one thing is so good looking here is a butterfly inside of a jar it is in the jar in the park I let itself put it there because I love it and because it is always shining in the jar my butterfly is acting like there is a ceiling but there are never ceilings the sky just might be black it is 100% loving and good looking it looks good in its jar in the park if you asked it would call it a dome all it ever does is love itself it does not breathe or move but shines it is that kind of butterfly it is not that kind of jar
